

TERMS & CONDITIONS

Candidates are requested to ensure and finalize their program before booking a course. If by any means a candidate is unable to undergo the course on the concern date, the same can be shifted to next available date as per the availability within 3 months without any additional charges.

In case a candidate wants to cancel any course before the commencement of the course they need to send an email to the Institution along with their bank details. Course booking is subjected to seat availability.

End dates of the course are subjected to change. Course will commence after 25% of the seats is filled.

CANCELLATION POLICY

The Refund amount will be issued only through online payment to the Candidate's account. If the candidate decides to quit the course halfway then fee will not be refunded.